

JAMIE SCHEDULE UPDATE. APRIL –MAY

Exciting Update from NK Theatre Arts: "Everybody's Talking About Jamie" Returns to The Forum Theatre!

We are thrilled to announce that "Everybody's Talking About Jamie" will be going ahead at our beloved home, The Forum Theatre! This news is truly fantastic for all involved, and we couldn't be more excited to return to the "place where we belong," as beautifully put by Jamie himself. The show promises to be a joyous celebration and a truly special event.

If you have already purchased tickets, there is no need to worry – they will be seamlessly transferred back to us! For any questions or concerns, please reach out to clare@nktheatrearts.org.uk.

As we prepare to make the transition back to our home venue, we are currently sorting out various logistics. Once we have a confirmed date for our return to the building before the show, we will finalize the June rehearsal schedule. In the meantime, please refer to the updated rehearsal schedule for "Jamie" for April-May, with June details to follow soon! Stay tuned for potential additions, such as a Saturday matinee show.
